

SAFE PATHWAYS

Presented By The School District Of Philadelphia & IDAAY

Program Highlights

- Trained Community Advocates
- Supervises & deescalates Violence
- Schedule contingent on the school's dismissal times
- Youth Companionship
- Assists School Police & Climate Staff

The partnership between the Philadelphia School District (PSD) and the Institute for the Development of African American Youth, Inc (IDAAY) to provide supervision and support for students traveling from school. The goal of the partnership is to reduce the rate of violence and conflict experienced by students. Safe Path Monitors work in teams of between two (2) and seven (7) monitors.

THE SCHOOLS INCLUDE:

Bartram High School

Edison High School

Lincoln High School

Motivation High School

Roxborough High School

Sayre High School

Ben Franklin High School

Conwell Middle School

Dobbins High School

Mastbaum High School

Overbrook High School

Philadelphia Military Academy

Vaux Big Picture High School

Wagner Middle School

Scan here to apply now!
or visit
[https://idaay.org/
/joblistings](https://idaay.org/joblistings)

Program Director

Jacqueline Bonner
(445) 213-9077
jbonner@idaay.org

